On 3 December 1950, there were no indications of extending the runways of the Wisnar (H 54/T 49) airfield from the edge of the field. The runways appeared to be in good condition. Several local residents said that they knew nothing about any construction being done at the field. A warning sign on the road to the field bore the inscription: "Off limits, firing practice." A wooden tower, about 7 meters high, was in the southwestern corner of the field. Two vertical rods of about the same height were on the top of the tower. *

25X1 * ☐ Comment. No changes have occurred at the field compared with previous reports. The field is not occupied by Soviet Air Force troops. No reports have been received about construction being done at the field.
